Heritage Trade Up Programme

School for Social Entrepreneurs (SSE) are currently working with the National Lottery Heritage Fund to offer a fully funded programme for leaders of heritage organisations. The programme - Heritage Trade Up - aims to strengthen the financial resilience and governance capabilities of heritage organisations and comes with a grant of up to £7k.

Are you looking to strengthen the financial resilience and governance capabilities of your heritage organisation? This fully-funded programme will offer eight months of capacity building support for a broad range of heritage sector organisations from across the UK.

will be part of a safe and supportive group of like-minded peers.

Key benefits:

- Strengthen your organisation with their free learning programme: Eight days of learning between January 2023 and December 2023
- Receive a £4,000 Match Trading grant that supports your recovery from the Covid pandemic.
- Gain a network of peers, who will help you develop your plans and act as a sounding board.

SSE's programmes are based on peer and action-learning. There definitely not about textbooks and teachers. Instead, SSE will help you to get the head space you need to map out next steps, with the support of other leaders facing similar challenges.

Who should apply?

The programme is designed for people who are leading a heritage organisation or trading project. They should have responsibility for the trading activity and be able to shape it and make strategic decisions.

Full details on applying can be found here.

Deadline for applications is 1pm, Friday 21st October 2022.
