Dynamic Views – the importance of views

Guided walks

The Mayor of Bath's Honorary Guides will lead 50-minute guided tours to see the landscape setting, celebrating Bath's amazing scenery. Setting out from the Guildhall, the tours start at 11.30am, leave regularly and the last tour will be at 2.30pm. Included is a visit to the Abbey plant room, normally closed to the public, to explore its innovative new eco-heating system, powered by the hot waste water from the Hot Spring. Join a tour on arrival or sign-up for a later slot at the Guides' stand in the Banqueting Room. Suitable for all ages.

Displays and activities (Banqueting Room)

Organisation	Activities
Adelard Group	Find out about Adelard – Britain's first scientist. See a film, chat to people and discover more about this amazing scientist from Bath.
Bathscape	Join Bathscape and friends for nature-based activities.
Bath Abbey	'A constant presence in a changing city'. Bath Abbey has stood at the heart of the World Heritage site for over 1000 years. Our research volunteers will tell you about the part that skill, ambition, loyalty and chance played in its success through the centuries.
Bath Medical Museum	Bath's geological history has created a series of land forms that has left us with a landscape that is both beautiful and unique. The 'springs' hot and cold have been exploited to build a medical and tourist industry. Have fun with a hands-on activity.
Bath Preservation Trust	Meet the team at Beckford's Tower and find out about how the Tower sits within its landscape setting. Have a go at decorating a pebble that you can take with you as you discover Bath's amazing scenery.
Bath Record Office	See some well-known and some unusual views of Bath in its landscape setting from the archives. Ask the team your burning questions about the history of Bath & North East Somerset.
